DEDICATION

Mrs. Mary E. Jones

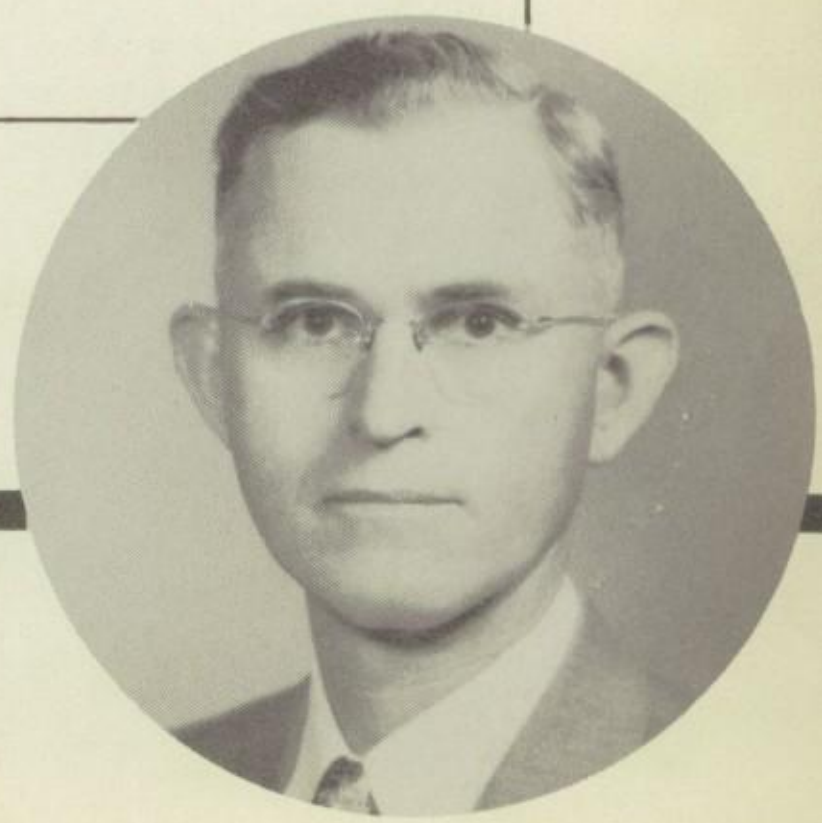
It was Hawthorne who said, "No man who needs a monument should ever get one."

These teachers have given many years of service, so that we and others like us might have the advantages of a comfortable plant and a good education. They have helped us to acquire skills which will enable us to meet all life situations successfully and to appreciate all worthwhile things.

Teachers who have been so patient and considerate with us when our attitudes were so undesirable and our efforts so feeble, should be rewarded for their care in directing us from day to day.

With deepest appreciation we dedicate this 1954 edition of the Trojan to Mrs. Mary E. Jones, our sponsor, and Mr. Foster Norton, our superintendent.

Mr. Foster Norton



SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Seniors:

The time is close at hand when we will be bidding you farewell as students of this school. You have been a fine group of boys and girls to work with, and I wish you success and happiness in your life's work. I would, also, like to remind you that your education is just beginning. What you have acquired in school is just the foundation on which you will build that life which is yours to direct.

Here are a few PROVERBS that might serve as guides for you.

Guard well your spare moments. They are like uncut diamonds. Discard them, and their value will never be known; improve them, and they will become the brightest gems in a useful life. --Emerson

Courtesy is not a veneered politeness of manner, but an innate quality of the mind and heart. --Kleiser

A man who makes a mistake and doesn't correct it is making another mistake. -- Confucius

If a man seeks for greatness, let him forget greatness and ask for truth; and he will find both. --Mann

1954 CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1954, in sound mind and healthy physique, do make this our last will and testament. Each article here described is bequeathed severally to the below mentioned individuals according to the terms of this will and testament.

We hereby appoint as sole administrator of this will, our superintendent to administer this will and testament as he sees best:

To the seventh grade, we leave our good behavior and good manners.
To the eighth grade, we will our ability to make good use of the library facilities.
To the freshmen, we leave our ability to remain loyal to our class and to the promotion of all its activities.
To the sophomores, we leave all stolen tests.
To the juniors, as a class, we leave our ability to raise money for class expenses.
To our superintendent, Mr. Norton, we leave the school house and all marked up desks.
To our custodian, Mr. Bracy, we leave all old gum and candy wrappers found under the desks.
To our coach, Mr. Rittman, we leave all dirty clothes and other junk found in the dressing rooms.
To our librarian, Mrs. Norton, we leave all lost library books.
To Mr. Canada, we leave the seventh and tenth grades.
To our storekeeper, Bill Casey, we leave our debts.
To our typing teacher, Mr. Steele, we leave all crumbs of erasers found in the typewriters.

I, Betty Ransom, leave my class ring to Joyce Smith, hoping for a brighter tomorrow.
I, David Leonard, do bequeath my ability to make "A's" in conduct and throwing tomatoes to Grover Slocum.
I, Jimmie Kennedy, do bequeath my ability to get up at 8:39 and get to school at 8:40 to Ramona Sullins.
I, Pete Imboden, leave my good grades to James Barton.
I, Agnes Bracy, leave my ability to get married to Yvonne Harris.
I, O'Neal Lemke, do bequeath my ability to get along with the teachers to Ivan McClanahan.
I, Norma McClanahan, do bequeath my long hair to Rebecca Volk.
I, Janice Diebold, leave my ability to get into trouble to Kitty Imboden and Tenna Slocum.
I, Faye Baldwin, leave my ability to applepolish the teachers to Janie Winkles.
I, Dot Hess, leave my ability to flirt to Ruby Nell Burnett.
I, George Glass, do bequeath my height to Louella Wilson.
I, Clyda Pulley, leave my tight Levies to Jenny Lee Burnett.

And to our dear sponsor, Mrs. Jones, we leave the following:

Our hard work on the annual, all apples, bananas, and grapes eaten from the art studies, by the art students, our blank English workbooks, and the many grey hairs we've put onto her head.

Signed,

Senior Class
